

HOMEWORK

Homework should not exceed thirty minutes per subject per day. Every student will have homework, and the assignments are due on the assigned date and may not be accepted late. It is helpful for parents to review completion of assignments regularly and review the agenda for additional communication.